

Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy Statement

It is the policy of Fastenal Company to provide equal employment opportunity / affirmative action to all employees and applicants for employment in accordance with all applicable federal, state, or local, executive orders, regulations and laws. We will not engage in any form of prohibited employment discrimination. This includes: discrimination on the basis of race, color, creed, gender, religion, national origin or citizenship status, disability, age, genetic information, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, sexual orientation, gender identity, familial status, veteran status, or any other protected classifications. Furthermore, Fastenal will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. This policy is applicable to all personnel actions and practices including, but not limited to, recruitment, selection, promotion, training, transfer, rates of pay, part time work, and all other terms and conditions of employment.

Compliance with this policy is the personal responsibility of all employees, especially those who have responsibilities with regard to the employment process. Further, as an Equal Employment Opportunity / Affirmative Action Employer, we will commit the necessary time and resources to meet our responsibilities and obligations. Any employee who does not comply with this policy is subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including discharge.

To assure compliance with this policy, I have designated Tabitha Newton, Director of Compliance-HR. Noelle Oas, EVP – Human Resources, will report directly to me on any action deemed necessary for action or compliance. ## Anti-Harassment Policy

It is the policy of Fastenal Company to provide a workplace free from any type of prohibited harassment, retaliation for having reported prohibited harassment, or participation in any activity protected by applicable federal, state, or local law. This includes, but is not limited to, harassment on the basis of race, color, creed, gender, religion, national origin or citizenship status, disability, age, genetic information, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, sexual orientation, gender identity, familial status, veteran status, or any other protected classifications. Harassing conduct by anyone in our workplace is prohibited and should be reported immediately. This refers to behavior that is personally offensive, impairs morale, and interferes with work. Examples of such conduct include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Demanding or requiring sexual favors as a condition of employment, continued employment, favorable work assignments, promotions, or favorable working conditions.
2. Repeated and unwelcome sexual advances or physical contact of a sexual nature which have the purpose or effect of unreasonable interference with work performance or which create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.
3. Repeated and unwelcome comments of a sexual nature (including dirty jokes, sexual innuendos, obscenities) which have the purpose or effect of unreasonable interference with work performance or which create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.
4. Repeated and deliberate comments about any protected classification, for example, race, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, veteran status, which have the purpose or effect of unreasonable interference with work performance or which create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.
5. Repeated and unwelcome conduct such as drawing, distributing, or creating materials or objects about protected classifications including, but not limited to, those described above which have the purpose or effect of unreasonable interference with work performance or which create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

Engaging in or permitting prohibited harassment, as well as, retaliating against anyone for reporting prohibited harassment will not be tolerated. Allegations of prohibited conduct will be investigated and appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including discharge will occur, if necessary. There will be no adverse action taken against individuals who allege violations of this policy or who participate in the investigation of such matters.

Any individual, who believes that she or he has received treatment contrary to this policy, should immediately report such behavior to a supervisor, manager, or to an individual listed below at the corporate offices:

Noelle Oas – EVP-Human Resources – (507) 313-7769.
